NOTICE

ATTENTION : ALL STUDENTS

Sub.: Violation of Hostel Rules ... reg.

*****

It has been brought to our knowledge that some students are violating the hostel rules and assembling en masse in a room late night and causing disturbance to the neighbors.

The first year students are in campus attending the orientation program.

The rules and regulations on ragging, anti-ragging, punishments, etc., have already been circulated to you.

Inviting the first year students to the rooms of senior students is 'PROHIBITED' under law.

The first year students are NOT permitted to go to the rooms of seniors.

It is reminded that currently a case of ragging in Christian Medical College, Vellore, Tamil Nadu is actively perused by the High Court of Tamil Nadu wherein (seven) senior students have already been suspended and FIRs have been filed by Police.

The future of these senior students is at stake.

So, all students are instructed to refrain from such unlawful activities in the hostel/Institute and maintain peace inside the hostel/Institute.

The Institute will be helpless for those who willfully violate the hostel/Institute rules.

The Institute would like to see each one of you successfully graduating, raise in your career, and bring reputation to the Institute!
